The 24 March 2011 meeting of the City of Toronto Planning and Growth Management Committee was a big one. At that meeting the Committee voted unanimously to repeal the City's new Comprehensive Zoning By-law 1156-2010 (reported on in our June and September 2010 issues) - which is subject to no less than 700 OMB appeals - and to request that a new City-wide zoning by-law be brought forward to that Committee by January 2012.
