PRACTICE AREAS

- Insurance Litigation

Kimberlee has been a Law Clerk in Blaney McMurtry's Insurance Litigation Department for over 25 years. Skilled in all aspects of managing litigation file management, she frequently supports senior lawyers with pleadings and document management to support their litigation planning and trial preparation.

A naturally organized and communicative leader, Kimberlee is very involved within the Insurance Litigation department. She has prepared precedent documents that are used throughout the department. She also implemented an Expert Database that is now used widely throughout the firm. Law clerks, students, and assistants often seek Kimberlee out for advice and guidance.
