EDUCATION

- Diploma, Legal Assistant Program, Grant MacEwan College, 1988

PRACTICE AREAS

- Insurance Litigation

Shelley is a senior litigation law clerk with 25+ years' experience in both insurance defence and commercial litigation. Incredibly detail-oriented, over the years Shelley has developed, managed, and maintained a number of large document-intensive databases, making her a go-to individual at the firm for e-discovery assistance.

In recent years, Shelley has become actively involved with monthly reporting and e-billing requirements for some of the firm's largest insurance clients. Her strong organizational skills combined with her highly communicative nature make Shelley an invaluable member of the firm's Insurance Litigation department.
