

Mirilyn Sharp Appointed to The Advocates' Society Executive Committee

Date: August 03, 2016

Mirilyn Sharp has been appointed as an Executive Member of The Advocates' Society Class Actions Practice Group for the 2016-2017 term. As a member of the Practice Group's executive team, Mirilyn will be a leader in keeping members informed about developments in this practice area, help to organize events that will connect the members of the bar to one another, and to members of the bench; assist with policy and advocacy submissions in the Class Actions practice area; and provide input into how The Advocates' Society can best serve the members of the Practice Group.

Congratulations, Mirilyn!
