

Blaney McMurtry Announces Two New Partners

Date: February 09, 2022

Blaney McMurtry LLP is proud to announce that two associates have become partners of the firm.

Lucas J. Kittmer is a member of the firm's Insurance Litigation Group. Lucas is an experienced and adaptive litigator that is recognized for his pragmatic solutions and strong judgement. Lucas has developed a broad civil litigation practice that includes successful advocacy before all levels of court in Ontario. He specializes in large loss property claims, construction deficiencies, director & officer liability (with an emphasis on condominium boards), and errors & omissions claims against engineers, IT support providers, and others. He also has significant experience handling automobile and personal injury claims, including the defence of municipalities from across Ontario.

Sonia Shantikumar is a member of the firm's Insurance Litigation Group. Sonia is a talented and tenacious litigator. She leverages her training and experience as a Chartered Professional Accountant to provide her clients with deep financial insight and comprehensive solutions to their legal problems. Clients appreciate and rely on Sonia's sound judgment, practical advice and strong advocacy skills to address their legal concerns. Sonia enjoys a broad civil litigation practice with a focus on professional liability. She is experienced in defending claims against accountants, financial advisors, directors and officers, insurance brokers, engineers, lawyers, and other professionals.

Congratulations to our new partners!
