

Anisha Samat

Associate

P: 416-593-3924

ASAMAT@BLANEY.COM

CALLED TO THE BAR OF ONTARIO,
2021

EDUCATION

- B.C.L./J.D., McGill University, 2020
- B.A. (Honours), York University, 2015

PRACTICE AREAS

- Commercial Litigation

Anisha is a pragmatic litigator who takes pride in advising her clients on complex corporate-commercial matters both in and out of the courtroom. Known for her meticulous attention to detail, she excels at finding creative and effective solutions.

Anisha's experience spans across bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring matters, real estate disputes, fraud, shareholder and partnership disputes, other general contract disputes, and class actions. Specifically, Anisha also has significant experience working with institutional lenders on asset-based lending transactions and subsequent enforcements.

Anisha has represented clients before all levels of court in Ontario. She also frequently participates in alternative dispute resolution processes, including private arbitrations.

MEMBERSHIPS

- South Asian Bar Association (SABA)