

Blaneys Welcomes New Associates

Date: April 29, 2011

We are pleased to welcome several new Associates to the Firm.

Catherine McInnis joins the firm's Commercial Litigation Group. Called to the Ontario Bar in 2007, Catherine has experience in securities and commercial disputes, including class actions, and shareholder and partnership disputes.

Grace Kim (not pictured) also joins the firm's Commercial Litigation Group. Called to the Ontario Bar in 2008, Grace assists clients in matters involving corporate governance, fraud, and contractual and commercial disputes.

Bradley Wells, called to the Ontario Bar in 2008, will practice with the firm's Insurance Coverage Counsel Group. Bradley has been an accredited Canadian Insurance Broker since 2000.

Joining the firm's Insurance Litigation Group, are Catherine McGhee and Robert Moss.

Catherine was called to the Bar in 2007 and is currently working towards her LL.M. in Civil Litigation and Dispute Resolution. Her practice includes defence of motor vehicle tort, occupier's liability, professional negligence and general liability claims.

Robert was called to the Bar in 2008 and his practice involves defending personal injury and property damage claims, professional liability and product liability claims.

PRACTICES

- Commercial Litigation
- Insurance Litigation