

Henry Chang will be speaking on global immigration issues at the American Immigration Lawyers Association Annual Conference

Date: June 29, 2010

On July 1, 2010 Henry Chang will be speaking on global immigration issues at the American Immigration Lawyers Association Annual Conference in National Harbor, Maryland. Henry will lead a roundtable discussion, "Managing Outbound Issues: Appointing your Ambassadors to the World". As the world gets smaller and competition grows, clients expect their lawyers to advise on immigration matters no matter where their final destination may be. This roundtable is directed toward business immigration lawyers who are faced with these requests and will offer insight on the best way to manage the multinational client's needs.
